

Dr. Gary William THESEIRA

- More than a decade of experience in Climate Change and Sustainability Policy Development, Communication and Negotiation at International and National levels;
- Advocate for Science-based policymaking, multi-stakeholder consensus building and conflict resolution, and,
- Analytical Foundation in Agronomy, Forest Ecology, Hydrology and Carbon Quantification with Programme and Project Management, Monitoring and Reporting Essentials.

CURRENT POSITION

Senior Research Officer; Forest Research Institute of Malaysia (FRIM).

Consultant Technical Advisor for Climate Action and Sustainability; Malaysian Green Technology and Climate Change Centre (MGTC)

- Advise the Government on National and International Policy, Legislation, Regulations, Institutional Frameworks, Governance, Implementation, and Compliance.
- Communicate with Senior Civil Service Officers, National and State Agencies, Media, Civil Society Organisations and the Private Sector.
- Facilitate the transition of the Malaysian Green Technology Corporation to the Malaysian Green Technology and Climate Change Centre.

PREVIOUS POSITIONS

2018-2020 – Special Functions Officer to the Hon. Yeo Bee Yin, Minister of Energy, Science, Technology, Environment and Climate Change; Ministry of Energy, Science, Technology, Environment and Climate Change

2010-2018 – Deputy Undersecretary, Environment Management and Climate Change Division; Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment Malaysia (NRE).

2001-2018 – Senior Research Officer; Forest Research Institute of Malaysia (FRIM).

1993-2000 – Research and Postdoctoral Associate, University of Minnesota.